

21 July 2025

If unable to either scan or see the barcode enter Client ID number located below in your details

Musawar Liaquat BAJWA

In reply please quote:

Client name	Musawar Liaquat BAJWA
Date of birth	01 April 1995
Client ID	95486511989
File number	BCC2025/1494199
Date of application	28 February 2025
Transaction reference number	EGP6JXYM2U
Application ID	1585699303
Transmission method	Email sent to visa@anchormigration.com.au

Dear Musawar Liaquat BAJWA

Appointment for Australian citizenship - Interview With Standard Test

You have been booked for an Interview With Standard Test. This is your opportunity to demonstrate that you meet the legal requirements for Australian citizenship. You will need to bring a photo identity document to the appointment.

Date:	20 August 2025
Time:	2:50PM
Place:	Brisbane Office 299 Adelaide Street Brisbane QLD 4000 Google map link
Duration:	Up to 1 hour

What we need before your test appointment

Ensure you have reviewed all supporting documents before your appointment
immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/Documents/citizenship-client-guidance.pdf

Provide all documents before attending your appointment. Supporting documents brought to the appointment will not be accepted.

How should you provide the information

Attach all documents, information and written statements to the application through ImmiAccount.

Provide clear, colour copies of documents. All text must be visible. If a document is more than one page, save it as a single file.

Our website has instructions on how to use ImmiAccount to attach documents www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount

If someone else submitted the application online or you do not have access to the application you can still attach documents through ImmiAccount.

Follow these steps:

1. create your own ImmiAccount
2. import your application into ImmiAccount
3. attach the documents.

Our website has instructions on how to start and manage the application www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount

If you cannot attend

If you are unable to attend the appointment time, you can reschedule online at appointments.homeaffairs.gov.au

If you reschedule your appointment more than three times, you may be prevented from rescheduling in the future.

Arriving for your appointment

- Ensure you arrive 10 minutes before your appointment.
- If you arrive late for your appointment, you may not be able to undertake the interview or test.
- Have a copy of this appointment letter, for example as a hard copy or on your phone.
- Have a photo identity document, examples include:
 - passport
 - student card
 - proof of age card
 - Australian driver licence.
- Name change document (if you have changed your name since submitting your application for Australian Citizenship).
- Read instructions for attending a Departmental office immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/contact-us/offices-and-locations/offices-in-australia/covid19-instructions-australia

Note:

- Ensure you make parking arrangements for the duration of your appointment.
- There are no childcare facilities at the appointment place.

What happens at your appointment

At your appointment we will:

- discuss your citizenship application

- check your original photo identity document
- take your photograph (do not wear coloured contact lenses)
- assess your eligibility to sit the test.

Examples of photo identity documents include:

- passport
- student card
- proof of age card
- Australian driver licence.

The citizenship test

The citizenship test is conducted in English, consists of 20 multiple-choice questions and is computer-based. You will have up to 45 minutes to complete your test attempt. If you do not complete the test within that time, a result will be given based on the questions you have completed. No extensions of time will be granted.

The test will be 'closed book'. During the test:

- you are not allowed to refer to the resource booklet ('Australian Citizenship: Our Common Bond') or study aids (including electronic equipment such as cameras or smartphones); and
- you cannot communicate with anyone (by phone or otherwise), other than the test administrator.

If you fail to comply with the above conditions, the test administrator may determine that you have not successfully completed the test.

How to prepare

To prepare for your citizenship test, read the Australian Citizenship: Our Common Bond resource booklet or listen to the podcast series available on our website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/prepare-for-citizenship

The booklet is available in English and the most common community languages.

After your appointment

After your appointment, the assessment process of your application will continue. You may be asked to provide further information or documents, such as additional overseas police clearance certificates. You may be asked to attend another interview. Once the assessment process is complete, we will advise you in writing of the outcome of your application.

Personal identifiers

Under the Australian Citizenship Act 2007, the Department has the authority to collect a range of personal identifiers from persons applying for Australian citizenship. Personal identifiers include your photograph, fingerprints and signature. The Department collects your personal identifiers primarily for identity and document fraud purposes. This letter is a formal request for your personal identifiers.

Once provided, your personal identifiers will be stored electronically in the Department's computer system and may be shared with the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade for Australian passport purposes and National Police Checking Service for the purpose of conducting a National Police check in relation to your application for Australian citizenship. Your personal identifiers may be used in court or tribunal proceedings relating to you.

Your personal information (which includes personal identifiers) is protected by law under the Privacy Act 1988. Under the Privacy Act 1988, you have the right to make a complaint to the Australian Information Commissioner about the handling of personal information.

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 gives you access to certain information and documents held by the Australian Government and its agencies. You have a right to seek access to that information or documents, and to seek amendment of records containing personal information that is incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading.

More information about the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information is available at immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/form-listing/forms/1442i.pdf

More information on personal identifiers is available at immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/form-listing/forms/1243i.pdf

Your Information – your privacy

Your citizenship application contains a Privacy notice detailing how the Department may collect, use and disclose personal information. This is applicable to all the information provided for the purpose of assessing your citizenship application and any children included within your application.

Update us

You must let us know about any changes to your circumstances as soon as possible. This includes changes to your name, contact details, address or information about children included in your application.

More information about how to update us is on our website immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/change-in-situation

Yours sincerely

Assistant Secretary
Position number 3355
Department of Home Affairs